AWARD

In exercise of the powers conferred by Clause (d) of sub-section (1) of Section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (Central Act 14 of 1947) the Government of Goa by order dated 27th September, 2007 bearing No. 28/38/2007-LAB/902 referred the following dispute for adjudication to the Industrial Tribunal of Goa.

"(1) Whether the action of the Management of M/s. Beira Mar Alfran Resorts, Baga Road, Sauntawado, Calangute, Bardez-Goa in refusing employment to Shri Ramrai Mandrekar, Housekeeping Supervisor, with effect from 01-06-2004, is legal and justified?"

(2) If not, to what relief, the Workman is entitled?"

2. On receipt of the reference, a case was registered under No. IT/96/07 and registered A/D notice was issued to the parties. In pursuance to the said notice, the parties put in their appearance. The Workman/Party I (for short 'Workman') herein represented by the Union, filed its statement of claim at Exb. 9. The facts of the case in brief as pleaded by the Workman are that the Employer/Party II (for short "Employer") is a

Hotel Industry which caters to the needs of Indian as well as foreign tourists by providing the room services and restaurant facilities by charging certain tariffs. He stated that the Employer Hotel also employs many workmen and staff employees for the purpose of providing efficient service to the visiting tourists. He stated that he was employed with the Employer as a "Bell Boy" and due to his hard and dedicated service, he was rewarded the post of "Housekeeping Supervisor". He stated that as a Housekeeping Supervisor, he was performing the job of collecting the bed sheets, towels from the different rooms of the hotel and replacing it with clean bed sheets and towels which duties were performed by him along with the help of other workmen. He stated that he was also responsible for keeping the rooms, toilets and bathrooms clean and neat. He stated that the entire job was supervised and controlled by the Resort Manager of the Employer. He stated that his last drawn salary was Rs. 1,600/- p. m. He stated that from September, 1996 till 18-09-2000, he worked with the Employer's Hotel as a "Bell Boy" continuously without any break in service. He stated that on 18-09-2000, the Employer through his Manager, Mr. Vincent D'Souza forced him to sign the contract letter which was refused by him and therefore, the said Manager threatened him that his services would be terminated. He stated that he therefore under threat, force, duress and coercion signed the said contract letter which was prepared by the Employer. He stated that the contract letter which was signed after 18-09-2000 is a mere pretence to show that he is on contractual employment and not on regular service. He stated that infact from September, 1996 till 18-09-2000 he was in continuous service with the Employer's aforesaid Hotel without any break in service and has completed more than 240 days of continuous service and as such terminating his services w. e. f. 01-06-2004 without following the provisions of section 25-F of the I. D. Act, 1947 is illegal, unjust and bad-in-law. He stated that on 01-06-2004, when he had gone for his regular work, the Manager of the Employer Hotel, Mr. Vincent D'souza informed him that there is no work available for him and that the intimation will be sent to him to join for work as soon as the work is available. He stated that thereafter, he never received any intimation from the Employer to resume for work and hence he tried to contact the Management. He stated that his request for providing him work was disallowed and as such on 29-09-2004 he raised an Industrial Dispute before the Office of Assistant Labour Commissioner, Mapusa-Goa demanding immediate reinstatement, with full back wages and continuity in service. He stated that the said Industrial Dispute was taken in conciliation by the Assistant

Labour Commissioner, Mapusa-Goa, however ended in its failure. He stated that after his refusal of employment, the Employer has recruited the new workers in his place as housekeeping supervisors and the said hotel has operated in full swing. He stated that he is presently unemployed and does not have any source of income. He submitted that he is entitled for reinstatement with full back wages. He stated that the termination of his services is an act of hire & fire, which is not permissible in any descent society. He therefore prayed that he be reinstated in service with full back wages, continuity in service and all other consequential benefits.

3. The Employer filed its written statement at Exb. 11 denying the claim of the workman. The Employer stated that the Workman was engaged as "Floor Supervisor" and that too purely on temporary basis. The Employer stated that the Workman has signed a contract letter without any threat, force, duress and coercion after getting it read. The Employer stated that at no point of time the Workman has approached Mr. Vincent D'Souza regarding job purpose. The Employer stated that the Workman was engaged on purely temporary basis only and his work was seasonal as per the contract terms. The Employer therefore prayed for dismissal of the claim of the Workman.

4. Thereafter the workman filed his re-joinder at Exb. 12 denying the case of the Employer as pleaded in its written statement and reiterate and confirms his case as pleaded in his claim statement.

5. On the basis of the pleadings filed by the respective parties in the present proceedings, this court framed the following issues at Exb.13:

1. Whether the Workman/Party I proves that he was employed with Party II since September, 1996 till 01-06-2004 continuously without any break in service?
2. Whether the Workman/ Party I proves that the action of the Employer/Party II in terminating the services w.e.f. 01-06-2004 is illegal & unjustified?
3. Whether the Employer/Party II proves that the Workman/Party I was employed as "Floor Supervisor" purely on temporary basis?
4. Whether the Employer/Party II proves that the Party I signed the contract letter without any threat, duress and coercion?
5. Whether the Workman/Party I proves that he is entitled for any relief?
6. What Award?

6. After filing the written statement by the Employer, a case was adjourned for an amicable settlement between the parties at the request of Ld. Adv., R. D. Mandrekar for the Employer. Both the parties also sought time twice to settle the matter amicably, however on 22-05-08 and onwards the Workman as well as his Adv., Shri Suhas Naik remained present, However neither the Employer nor the Ld. Adv., R. D. Mandrekar for the Employer, appeared on the relevant scheduled date of hearings and hence this Hon'ble Court after giving an ample opportunity, marked an Ex-Parte Order against the Employer on 30/09/08 and Ex-Parte Award dated 4-5-09 was passed. The said Ex-Parte Award dated 4-5-09 was also published in the Government Gazette on 30-7-09.

7. Thereafter, the Employer filed an application dated 11-8-09 for setting aside the said award dated 4-5-09 at Exb.15. The Workman gave no objection for the same. This Hon'ble Court after hearing the parties hereinabove, vide its Judgement and Order dated 17-11-2009 quashed and set aside the said award dated 04-05-09 by allowing the said application dated 11-08-09 at Exb.15 filed by the Employer and the matter was adjourned and fixed for hearing on 30-11-09 at 10.30 a. m. on its merits. On 30-11-09, the learned advocate appearing for the respective parties appeared and filed a joint application stating that they have amicably settled the matter between the parties herein above and further requested that settlement award be passed in terms of the amicable settlement between the parties herein above.

I have carefully perused the said joint application at Exb. 20 containing the terms of settlement filed by the parties alongwith their respective advocates and I am of the opinion that the said terms of settlement are beneficial to both the parties. It will also help in keeping peaceful, harmonious industrial relationship between the parties and hence I consented for the same.

In view of the above, I pass the following order:

ORDER

1. It is agreed between the parties that the Workman/Party I should effectively relieved from the services of the Employer/Party II w.e.f. 30-11-09.
2. It is agreed between the parties that the Employer/Party II should pay a sum of Rs. 25,000/- (Rupees twenty five thousand only) to the Workman/Party I towards his full and final settlement of the present dispute, which amount was paid to him by Cheque

No. 858412 dated 30-11-09 drawn on Axis Bank Ltd., Mapusa, Goa.

3. It is agreed between the parties that in view of the above settlement, the Workman/Party I has no claim of whatsoever nature against the Employer/Party II including the reinstatement as well as the back wages.
4. In view of the amicable settlement between the parties hereinabove the dispute as to "whether the action of the Management of M/s. Beira Mar Alfran Resorts, Baga Road, Sauntawado, Calangute, Bardez-Goa in refusing employment to Shri Ramrai Mandrekar, Housekeeping Supervisor, with effect from 01-06-2004, is legal and justified?" does not survive.

AWARD

In exercise of the powers conferred by Clause (d) of sub-section (1) of Section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (Central Act 14 of 1947) the Government of Goa by order dated 06-06-2008 bearing No. 28/03/2008-LAB/650 referred the following dispute for adjudication to the Industrial Tribunal of Goa.

“(1) Whether Shri Rajendra Zambaulikar, Area Sales Manager/Officer, can be construed as “Workman” as per Section 2(s) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (Central Act 14 of 1947)?

2. If the answer to the issue No. (1) above is in the affirmative, then, whether the action of the Management of M/s. R. R. O. Private Limited, Bombay, in dismissing Shri Rajendra Zambaulikar, Area Sales Manager/Officer, with effect from 20-07-2006, is legal and justified?”

3. If the answer to the issue No. (2) above is in the negative, then to what relief, the Workman is entitled?”

4. On receipt of the reference, a case was registered under No. IT/23/08 and registered A/D notice was issued to the parties. In pursuance to the said notice, the parties put in their appearance. The Workman/Party I (for short ‘Workman’) filed its statement of claim at Exb. 5. The facts of the case in brief as pleaded by the Workman are that the Employer/Party II (for short “Employer”) had appointed him in their establishment to work at Margao as a “Sales Representative” w. e. f. 01-08-2001. He stated that he was paid total monthly emolument of Rs. 8,500/- p. m. He stated that his services were confirmed by the Employer Company vide their letter dated 01-08-2003. He stated that he was carrying out the work of clerical/supervisory in nature by visiting stockist/supplier from place to place in Goa and obtained their requirements and submit the same requirement to the Employer Company. He stated that he used to visit retail market to procure their orders from retailers and submit the said orders to the respective distributors for the supply of materials. He stated that he used to visit supplier/distributors/sub-distributors day-to-day to collect cheques and remittance records and submit the same to the Employer Company from time to time. He stated that the Employer dismissed him from their services vide their letter dated 20-07-2006. He submitted that his dismissal from services by the Employer is illegal, unjustified and bad in law. He submitted that the Employer Company failed to comply with the provision of Section 25-F of the I. D. Act, 1947 at the time of dismissal of his services. He submitted that the non-compliance of the provision of Section 25-F of the I. D. Act, 1947 demands the Employer Company to reinstate him in their services with full back wages and continuity in services. He submitted that before the dismissal of his services, no enquiry was conducted against him by the Employer Company and hence violated the principles of natural justice. He therefore, prayed that the dismissal of his services by the Employer Company be declared as illegal, improper and unjustified and direct the Employer Company to reinstate him in their services with full back wages and continuity of services. He further prayed to award cost of the present Petition filed by him.

5. The Employer controverted the claim of the Workman by filing its written statement on 14-09-2009 at Exb. 11. The Employer by way of its Written Statement submitted that the dispute referred by the Govt. of Goa is false, baseless, malicious and not tenable in law. The Employer further submitted that the Party I was/is not a “Workman” as defined under provisions of the Industrial Disputes Act. The Employer, however admitted that the Party I was working as a “Sales Manager/Officer” and drawing a salary of Rs. 8,500/- at the time of his dismissal and not as a Workman. The Employer further submitted that the referring authority completely overlook the said fact and erroneously referred the matter for the adjudication without applying its mind. The Employer stated that as a Sales Manager, the Party I was required to discharge the duties in a managerial capacity. The Employer further stated that the Party I stopped attending his duties in his capacity as an “Officer/Manager” on and from 01-05-2006. The Employer stated that the Party I had submitted his resignation from the Employer Company w. e. f. 17-06-2006. The Employer submitted that the Party I had no intention of whatsoever nature to serve the Company as he had stopped attending the duties from 01-05-2006 and his contract of employment with the Company came to an end by virtue of his resignation dated 17-06-2006 and the said facts were published in Daily Newspaper “Navhind” on 25-07-2006. The Employer stated that even at the time of his appointment, he was informed that he was appointed as a “Sales Officer/Manager”. The Employer stated that the contract of the employment of the Party I with it as a Manager came to be terminated w. e. f. 17-06-2006. The Employer stated that the Party-I was doing the supervisory work and not the work of clerical nature. The Employer stated that since the Party I is not a "Workman", the question of following the provision of Section 25-F of the I. D. Act, 1947 does not arise at all and for the same reasons there was no question of holding the enquiry nor there any violation of the principles of natural justice. The Employer therefore, prayed that the reference be rejected in toto with exemplary costs.

6. Thereafter the case was fixed for filing the Re-joinder of the Workman to the written statement filed by the Employer. However, on 17-11-2009, the ld. Shri B. B. Naik representing the Workman and the Ld. Adv. Shri M. S. Bhandodkar appearing for the Employer jointly submitted that they are trying to settle the matter amicably between the parties herein above and sought time for amicable settlement. Accordingly, the Ld. Shri B. B. Naik representing the Workman and the Ld. Adv., Shri M. S. Bhandodkar appearing for the Employer appeared before me on 28-01-10 alongwith their respective parties and submitted that they have settled the matter amicably between the Parties herein above and filed an application at Exb.11 containing the terms of settlement arrived between the parties and prayed that an award in terms of settlement be passed.

I have carefully perused the said joint application at Exb. 11 containing the terms of settlement filed by the parties alongwith their respective advocates and I am of the opinion that the said terms of settlement are beneficial to both the parties. It will also help in keeping peaceful, harmonious industrial relationship between the parties and hence I consented for the same.

In view of the above, I pass the following order:

ORDER

1. It is agreed between the Parties that the Management of M/s. R. R. O. Pvt. Ltd. having its establishment in F/5 Soona Mahal 2nd Floor, 143 Marine Drive Mum bai shall pay a sum of Rs. 50,000/- (Rupees fifty thousand only) to Mr. Rajendra Zambaulikar by cheque No. 690920 dated 16-01-2010 drawn on Union Bank, payable at par which shall include all the claims of Mr. Rajendra Zambaulikar arising out of the present reference No. IT/23/08 and his employment.
